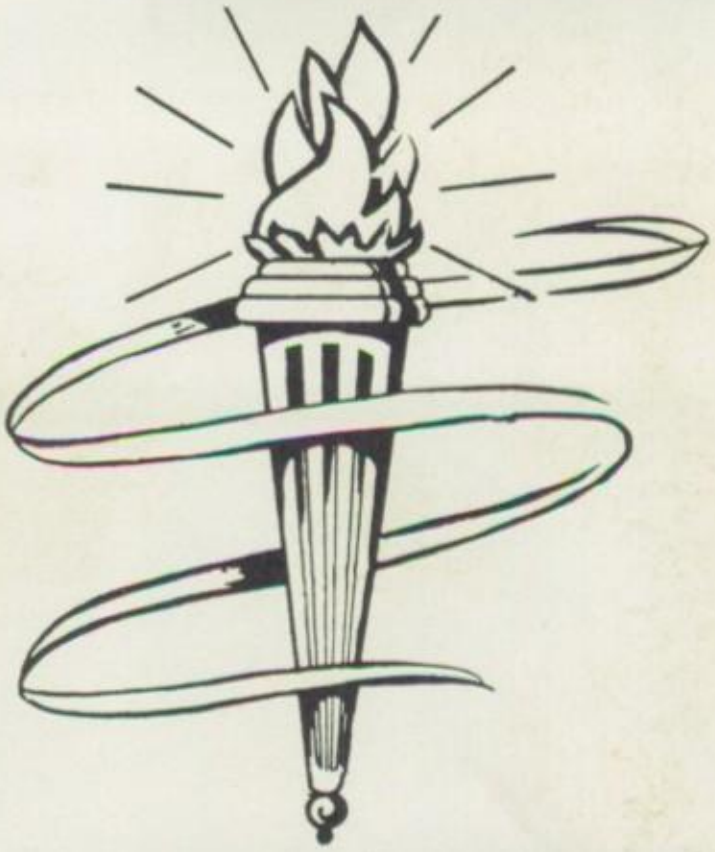
The 1960



PANORAMA

Foreword

We, the Annual Staff of Waverly High School, present the 1960 Panorama with sincere hope that the faces within will be acknowledged as part of the foundation and strength of our future America. It is our desire that as each of you read through this book you will think upon your future and what is ahead for you, and that the years represented in this book will long be pleasant and happy memories of your youth.

"He gave his honours
to the world again,
His blessed part to Heaven,
and slept in peace."

In Memoriam

On Monday, January 25, we gathered with our hearts saddened by the news of the death, the previous Saturday, of our county superintendent and friend, Talmage D. Foster. He took office in 1925 and has served us faithfully for thirty-five years. Mr. Foster made a great contribution to the cause of education in general, and to the educational system of Sussex County in particular.

Dedication

"Thou wert our philosopher and friend."

To one who has been helpful and understanding and who has rendered every service possible to uphold the spirit of Waverly High; to one who has encouraged us and guided us in all our undertakings since we first entered school; to one whose patience guided us through the years to our final goal as seniors, we the Senior Class proudly dedicate this, our 1960 Panorama, to Mr. Lohring C. Staples, our faithful and loyal principal, who came to this school in September, 1948, for the first time, as we did.

Class Prophecy

I have just returned from the moon where I went for my employer, the Secretary of Defense, to make a progress report. It was my first trip up there.

As the space ship landed I saw several people out to meet us. I wondered which one was the Chief-of-the-Moonstaff's secretary who was supposed to meet me. "Why, it's Lillian Morriss. Hi, Lillian. What on "Earth" are you doing here?"

"Why, Ruth; what on "Moon" are you doing here?"

"I'm here to make a progress report."

"I work here for the Chief-of-the-Moonstaff. I suppose you have heard that he is Jimmy Corl."

"No, I didn't. What other surprises are you going to spring on me today?"

"Come into the Moon Embassy and I'll show you. But, be quiet, the staff is having a very important meeting with Doctor Collins, who is expressing theories on the production of oxygen here."

"Do you mean Bill?"

"No, Jeanie. She's been up here about a month. She brought her husband and five children with her. Come on and I'll take you to the Governor's office!"

We went up several stories in a moonvator to a floor of solid glass and into the Governor's reception room. There I saw Geraldine McCauley typing top secret reports on her moon-matic typewriter. Lillian said that she had been the Governor's private secretary for several months. Gerry explained to me that she was saving money for the chain of Esso air stations she and Curtis are planning on building here.

I sat down to wait and who should be seated opposite me but Bill Collins. After talking to him I discovered that he was waiting to have his plans for building Crater University here approved.

After leaving the Governor's office we started for Lillian's apartment. On our way there I saw Jackie Cox practically sailing through the air with a basketball. He explained that he was trying to figure out a way to control the body enough to play basketball on the moon's surface.

Continuing on our way we met Parham Rose, who seemed to be in a fit of anger because his crop had failed. He said that he was trying to raise moonbeams for Cupid to use on Earth.

Arriving at the apratment at last, Lillian told me that she had arranged for me to have my hair done at the local beauty salon, where Selma Cox was the head beautician. Just filled with excitement, I finally settled down for a restful night's sleep.

I am back on Earth now and I think it was certainly a wonderful experience. Well, I have to get back to my brood now before they take off in those four little space suits I brought back with me.

Ruth Bryant

. . . Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and sixty, being of sound mind do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

Lillian Morriss	leaves her athletic ability to Lois Francis.
Jackie Cox	leaves his chin whiskers to Robert Maifeld.
Geraldine McCauley	leaves her fluent pronunciation of French to Mademoiselle Ward.
Ruth Bryant	leaves her height to Mary Frances West and her adeptness in the commercial room to Kenneth Coker.
Jeanie Collins	leaves her ability to twist Mr. Staples around her little finger to Wayne Francis.
Jimmy Corl	leaves his job as assistant janitor to Nancye Hughes.
Parham Rose	leaves his quiet manner to Beatie Bain.
Selma Cox	leaves her lady-like manner to Shirley Harwell.
Bill Collins	leaves his job in the drug store to Mary Smith.

Mes chers amis,

Je suis arrivé à Paris le 11 Août. Le voyage a été très long. Nous avons mis deux jours pour traverser l'Allemagne. Nous avons vu de très belles villes, mais je ne me suis arrêté qu'à Cologne et à Francfort. Je vous écrirai plus longuement demain.

Votre ami,

Jacques

Dear almost straight A student,

I've enjoyed having you in chemistry class this year. Hope you have a nice summer vacation.

Be good,
